

HSTE AWARD NOMINATIONS

2014 Making IT Happen winners
Left to Right: Linda Lindsay, Seabury Hall and Michelle Colte, Hale Kula Elementary

The Making IT Happen award honors outstanding educators and leaders who demonstrate extraordinary commitment, leadership, courage and persistence in improving digital learning opportunities for students. Since its inception in 1995 more than 500 educators from around the world have received the award. The spirit of the Making IT Happen award supports our vision of a world in which all learners thrive, achieve and contribute.

The Hawai'i Society for Technology in Education, an affiliate of ISTE, will award two winners this year. The winners will be honored at the SOTF Conference in November. The nominations deadline is September 1, 2015.

Award recipients are educators who:

- Apply available technology now.
- Move forward and don't look back.
- See students as real people.
- Teach through relationships, inspiring, encouraging and nurturing.
- Recognize that further change is necessary, but understand that it is a process.
- Realize that teacher empowerment is the key element to technology integration.
- Expect success.
- Motivate through awareness and access to information.

Award carries:

- A prize of an embroidered Making IT Happen jacket.
- A certificate.
- A one-year individual ISTE membership.
- An ISTE 2016 Conference registration.
